A sincere "thank you" to our outgoing officers

The members of the Baltimore Chapter wish to thank those officers and Committee members whose terms expire June 30 for their service to the chapter. The results of the election (deadline to vote—June 15) will be announced in the next issue of the Pipe & Pedal.

Jason Kissel has been Dean since July 2004 giving four years of dedicated service and inspired leadership. It was during his tenure that our chapter hosted a most successful regional convention, the positive results of which are serving us well in chapter growth and visibility. Thank you, Jason, for all of your efforts for the AGO and our chapter.

David C. Dasch has ably served as Registrar/Treasurer since July 1994. It was decided to divide that role into separate positions and we are pleased that David will continue as Registrar.

Appreciation, too, to Henry Lowe, Diane Luchese and Kathie Metz completing three-year terms on the Executive Committee. Your work has been valued and the chapter a more vibrant organization for your involvement.

Those continuing in leadership roles are also thanked for their contributions. We are pleased that you will be carrying on your work on our behalf. THANK YOU, THANK YOU!
